Corpus, journey through the human body

Project of Reco Productions International

Medium

Adjacent to the A44 highway in Leiden/Oegstgeest a thirtyfive meters high human body is build. In this 'Corpus landmark' visitors travel through the human body. During this trip Corpus' voice accompanies the visitors and explains in a pleasant way the functioning of 'his' body. This remarkable experience consists of 'state of the art' computer animations, spectacular music, fascinating special effects and impressive decorations.

Communication goal and result

Corpus means: live conscious, stay fit and eat healthy. Learning about your body, makes you aware of its complexity and encourages you to handle it with respect. Corpus also offers the visitors the opportunity to learn about themselves by means of games and tests. They also can browse the online medical encyclopedia.
